Recruiting is needed to maintain a healthy unit. Why this goal is so important?

- · Healthy Scouting units have 20 or more Scouts
- · 20 Scouts allow for multiple dens and patrols
- More dens keep activities age-appropriate
- More patrols permit additional leadership opportunities
- Larger units have a bigger recruiting pool for leaders
- Units with at least 20 Scouts are stronger and don't drop

Every unit is encouraged to establish the goal of achieving and maintaining 20 Scouts.

Highlights for Successful Recruiting

- Ensure beascout.org pin information is current.
- Have multiple leaders at district recruiting events
- Within 2 weeks of recruiting night, host a fun, informative New Family Orientation to further welcome families and recruit leaders.
- Make sure EVERY NEW FAMILY receives a welcoming phone call from their Scoutmaster, Cubmaster, Committee Chair, or the recruiting coordinator. Re-invite them to your New Family Orientation.

Common Mistakes on Signup Events

Coordinators (NMC) Required by BSA

New Member

Every unit needs a NMC to:

- Unit ambassador for new parents
- Encourage families to • stay & feel like they belong
- Foster adult enthusiasm
- The #1 overall issue Not enough people to cover each station
- Adults in uniform – Wearing business casual or a scout activity shirt helps ensure a better dialogue. It also avoids differentiating between registered leaders and parents who are staffing the recruiting night.
- Fundraising topics – Don't pitch popcorn or other fundraisers on sign-up night
- Recruiting new leadership at signup-Save that effort for New Family Orientation.

Template for a Single-Unit Recruiting Event

The station-to-station model shown has been demonstrated to increase flexibility of attending families and encourage relationship building in a more intimate setting via parent engagement. It reduces the time parents must be present; many will just want to get through the sign-up process. To help the process consider hosting an activity for the prospective new Scouts to participate in while the parents visit each station. Engaging troops to help in such an effort is a great approach!

Highlights for Successful Recruiting Event

- □ Select a fall recruiting coordinator (parent or registered leader) This allows the Unit Leader to be a floater and interact with parents on recruiting night.
- Ensure recruiting coordinator attends a recruiting night training
- Promote your sign-up nights on social media and at your charter organization.
- □ Make sure your unit has an impressive presence on recruiting night (at least 6 leaders or parents are needed to cover all positions).

Planning Timeline:

- □ Select sign-up night location and date

Prechecks:

- Coordinator should arrive about 1 hour before start to ensure time for set-up and to review station duties
- □ Review station duties with the leader and parent volunteer representatives
- Ensure welcome sign and station signs are visible

New Family Orientation Event (Two Weeks After Sign-up or next Unit Meeting)

The new family orientation event helps parents' transition into your unit and ensures Scouts have a fun start to their Scout experience. When planning this event, plan for two; one for parents and the other for the new Scouts.

- □ The Scout activity should be fun and entertaining. Include siblings in the Cub Scout age range. The effort is to ensure the Scout has a great first experience and allows parents to focus on the orientation.
- The orientation should introduce the unit leaders, describe how your unit works, and how the unit communicates to parents (e.g., e-mail, Remind, etc.)
- □ Collect the family talent surveys
